RACE, GENDER and LEADERSHIP SERIES

HEALTH AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN ASIA

Featuring Samir Lakhani
Pitt Alumnus, CNN Top 10 Hero of 2017

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2018

Samir was a college student volunteering in a rural Cambodian village when he witnessed the spread of disease due to poor personal hygiene. Today, his non-profit, Eco-Soap Bank, recycles bars of soap from hotels in Cambodia and distributes them to those in need.

12-1:30 p.m.
University of Pittsburgh Alumni Hall | 7th Floor Auditorium

KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Eco-Soap Bank and Pitt’s Year of Healthy U

Ted Talk-style conversation with Samir Lakhani about his work restoring health and dignity to developing countries, as profiled on CNN.

Open to local business leaders, health professionals and practitioners; Pitt students, faculty, staff, and friends; local activists and global leaders.

3-4 p.m.
University of Pittsburgh | William Pitt Union 630

Healthy Global Engagement and Social Entrepreneurship

Samir will discuss best practices when seeking employment with non-profits or developing new NGOs to serve the needs of developing countries. Co-sponsored by the Asian Studies Center, Center for Cross Cultural Leadership, Global Studies Center, and the Study Abroad Office at the University Center for International Studies.

Open to all Pitt students, faculty and staff.

5:30-7:30 p.m.
University Club | Gold Room
University of Pittsburgh
123 University Place
Pittsburgh, PA 15260

FIRESIDE CHAT
Health and Global Entrepreneurship

Conversation with Audrey Murrell, associate dean of the College of Business Administration, on ethics, leadership, health and global entrepreneurship in the 21st century.

Hosted by the College of Business Administration in partnership with the World Affairs Council and the University of Pittsburgh Innovation Institute.

Open to community leaders representing innovative and entrepreneurial communities across Pittsburgh.

SPONSORED BY: the University Center for International Studies, the College of Business Administration, David Berg Center for Ethics and Leadership, the Innovation Institute, and the Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences.