

BALKAN AND CENTRAL ASIAN WOMEN FILMMAKERS: FINDING THEIR OWN VOICES IN POST-SOCIALIST CINEMA

Friday, September 29th | 4:00-7:30pm | 125 Frick Fine Arts

Keynote address at 4pm by Yana Hashamova, Ohio State University

Thirst, directed by Svetla Tsotsorkova (Bulgaria, 2016)

Post-screening discussion with Bulgarian Film Scholar, Ingeborg Bratoeva-Daraktchieva

Saturday, September 30th | 10:00am -1:00pm | 125 Frick Fine Arts

Our Everyday Life, directed by Ines Tanovic (Bosnia, 2015)

Post-screening discussion with the director, Ines Tanovic

Saturday, September 30th | 3:00pm -6:00pm | 232 Cathedral of Learning

Nagima, Directed by Zhanna Issabayeva (Kazakhstan, 2013)

Post-screening discussion with lead actress, Dina Tukubayeva

Sunday, October 1st | 10:00am -1:00pm | 232 Cathedral of Learning

Ryna, directed by Ruxandra Zenide (Romania, 2006)

Post-screening discussion with Sunnie Rucker-Chang, University of Cincinnati

Roundtable at 1pm in 156 Cathedral of Learning facilitated by Nancy Condee, University of Pittsburgh

Join our REES Fall Series: The 1917 Centenary Series | Eastern Europe in the World | www.ucis.pitt.edu/crees

